*“Two roads diverged in a yellow wood,
And sorry I could not travel both
And be one traveler, long I stood
And looked down one as far as I could
To where it bent in the undergrowth;*

*Then took the other, as just as fair,
And having perhaps the better claim,
Because it was grassy and wanted wear;
Though as for that the passing there
Had worn them really about the same,*

*And both that morning equally lay
In leaves no step had trodden black.
Oh, I kept the first for another day!
Yet knowing how way leads on to way,
I doubted if I should ever come back.*

*I shall be telling this with a sigh
Somewhere ages and ages hence:
Two roads diverged in a wood, and I—
I took the one less traveled by,
And that has made all the difference.”*

the assurance needed to guide us toward our goal.*

A bronze statue of Persephone stands on a rectangular pedestal in a pond. The statue depicts a woman with long, flowing hair, wearing a long, draped garment. She has her right arm raised, holding a small object. The pedestal is inscribed with the name 'PERSEPHONE' and a paragraph of text. The scene is set at dusk, with a dark blue sky and silhouettes of trees in the background. The statue and pedestal are reflected in the water of the pond.

PERSEPHONE

IN ANCIENT GREEK MYTHOLOGY, SHE, AS THE DAUGHTER OF ZEUS AND DEMETER, WAS WORSHIPPED AS THE GODDESS OF VEGETATION, RETURNING EACH SPRING FROM THE REALM OF HADES TO HERALD THE SEASON OF GROWTH, AND IN WINTER DISAPPEARING TO PASS HER TIME, LIKE THE SEED, UNDER THE EARTH. THE STATUE WAS EXECUTED IN PARIS ABOUT 1840 BY ARMAND TOUSSAINT, 1806-1862. A GIFT OF JAMES IRVING HOLCOMB - 1950.

Student Life

The Routine Begins Early Each Day

No matter whether classes start in the morning or in the afternoon, it always seems too early to the sleepy-eyed scholars who must leave warm beds for cold showers and colder walks to classes or to breakfast. And although some have left warm beds, they rediscover their pleasant dreams, sometimes, in the classroom. The long shadows of early morning are dark reminders of the rigors of academic life.

Class Enables True Learning By Human Understanding

Only the academic atmosphere provided by a university can lead to unique learning. It is not particularly or wholly the learning through books, nor the strict adherence to assignment codes which motivate us; but rather, it is a collection of those subtle qualities of human beings that day by day points more precisely to the firm weld between love and learning.

True learning by its very nature cannot purport to preach with a bias on the basis of age, color, or creed; but rather it is bound with iron locks to seek objective understanding. The student who has learned to learn, then, must necessarily share a common goal with scholars of ages past. It is this common goal as well as our inherent longing for personal attainment, enrichment, and satisfaction that cause us to love the university atmosphere more and more from year to year.

College Life Means Eating College Food

Sandwiches, coffee, cokes, full meals, as well as relaxation and good company and practice in the important college art of waiting in lines are available in numerous lunch-room settings. Another art the student acquires is that of food-complaining. To be a college student is to complain about the food. Interestingly, however, the mortality rate from food poisoning is amazingly low. In fact, very few students appear to be wasting away because of undernourishment. Perhaps this is art for art's sake.

Security Is Found: True Friendships

Emotional warmth is a good and content feeling found everywhere on campus. In the hallways, at the library, on sorority row, by the Carillon . . . a companion is one of the greatest gifts derived from giving of oneself to others. A touch, a smile, a kind thought are all tiny remembrances that ever-lasting security is found in true friendship.

Heaven Manifests Itself In the Greatest Gifts of All

"To know what is impenetrable to us really exists, manifesting itself as the highest wisdom and the most radiant beauty . . ." One is given so much if only one can reach out and grasp these choice morsels of life. Color blends into oblivion as human races become united into oneness. Prisms of colored light filtrate the stained glass window—light from Paradise—a Heaven from whence God granted us at Butler the greatest gift . . . Wisdom.

"500" driver, Duane Carter, was the official flagman.

Delt Trik-la-tron Is Butler's Greatest Spectacle in Racing

Each spring tricycle racing comes to the Butler campus in the form of the Delt Trik-la-tron. Each sorority fields a team of girls who must qualify in the preliminary round in order to race in the finals. The teams are required to make several pit stops as fraternity men change the rear tires from one side of the tricycle to the other. The girls wear safety helmets and goggles during the actual race.

During the break between the preliminary round and the finals, the judging of the Trik-la-tron Queen is held. The girls are judged in bathing suits, and Susie Voigt, Kappa Kappa Gamma, was last year's winner. Delta Delta Delta captured the race itself in near record time. However, the race was marred for some by the failure of several machines to hold up under the strain of competition, and a few spills resulted.

Here she comes on seven cylinders.

Pit stops are important in any race.

"I sprang a leak in my oil pan."

Susie Voigt smiles as victory was hers too.

Lambda Chis Put Focus on Watermelons

The Lambda Chi Watermelon Bust, always a popular event on campus, was no exception this year. The traditional contests, seed-spitting, the watermelon throw, watermelon eating, and the Queen contest were all on the program.

Before, during, and after the contests, spectators helped themselves to as much watermelon as they wished. Tables set up in the back yard were constantly replenished with fresh supplies of red-ripe watermelon, courtesy of the gracious Lambda Chis.

To complete the day's festivities, the Lambda Chis sponsored a dance in the C-Club for the benefit of the whole campus at which time they announced the winner of the Queen contest. The 1965 Watermelon Queen was Susie Appleton, a Pi Beta Phi pledge.

Coeds Chase Derbies, Sigma Chis and Trophies

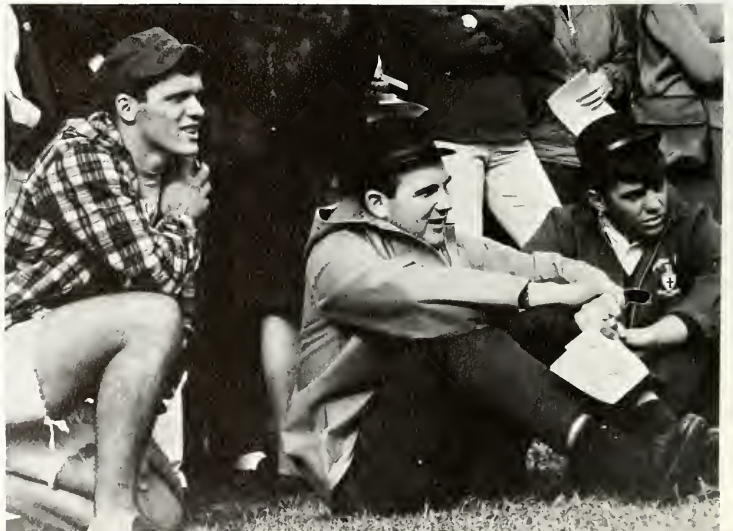

Sigma Chi Derby Day 1965 was marked by the usual scurrying and scrambling; girls leaped from trees or dashed from doorways and pounced on fleeing Sigs. Belying all appearances, bruises were minimal, and by afternoon few derbies remained to pursue.

The next day found everyone gathered at the Sigma Chi house for the traditional competition between sorority pledge classes. Events this year included the Egg Drop, the Mud Quest, the Mystery Event, a Greased Pig Chase, the Pot Race, and the Balloon Shave.

That evening an all-campus dance was held in the C-Club. The winner of the Queen contest and the sorority winning the overall competition were announced. The queen was Mary Alice Phares, Delta Gamma; Kappa Alpha Theta received the trophy for most points in all events.

Which one is the guy?

"I bet that chicken never expected this."

Mary Alice Phares reigned as Derby Day Queen.

Children! Children! Musn't play in the mud.

Sigma Chi, Alpha Chi Geneva Stunts Winners

Geneva Stunts for 1965, sponsored by the YMCA-YWCA, was held in Clowes Hall for the second year. Alpha Chi Omega, Delta Gamma, and Pi Beta Phi presented acts in the women's division; Tau Kappa Epsilon, Kappa Sigma, and Sigma Chi participated in the men's division.

Sigma Chi won the trophy given for the best men's act and also the trophy for the most original act with a parody of Shakespeare entitled "Where There's a Will There's a Way." Alpha Chi Omega won the women's trophy with "Cram-a-lot," a spoof of stuffy libraries.

Pi Beta Phi invaded a chemistry lab with "Element-ry Catastrophe," and Tau Kappa Epsilon revamped a fairy tale into "Snowflake and the Boys." "Of All the Kings' Men" by Kappa Sigma featured penguins, and Delta Gamma's "Principia" showed a girl alone in New York. All in all, Geneva Stunts—1965, was, indeed, one of the greatest ever.

Bachelor and Beauty Reign Over DRIFT

Mary Lu Schroeder, representing Pi Beta Phi, and Bill Stowring, representing Tau Kappa Epsilon, were chosen DRIFT Beauty Queen and Most Eligible Bachelor at the annual DRIFT Pageant held in the Krannert Room of Clowes Hall. Members of the DRIFT Beauty Court are Barbara Howard, Kappa Alpha Theta, and Susan Voigt, Kappa Kappa Gamma. Roger James, representing Ross Residence Hall, and Bill Lute, representing Lambda Chi Alpha comprise the Bachelor Court. The finalists were chosen for personality, appearance, and poise by a panel of Indianapolis residents.

The 1965-66 DRIFT Beauty Queen is a junior from Elgin, Illinois. She is a home economics major and plans to enter the field of merchandising upon graduation.

Most Eligible Bachelor, Bill Stowring, is a senior from Danville, Illinois. He is majoring in business administration. Bill is very interested in sports and actively participates in intramurals.

Coeds Capture the Hearts of Fraternity Men

One of the main highlights of the fraternity year is the selection each fall of the fraternity chapter sweetheart. She is official hostess for all the chapter's activities.

The sweetheart is honored in various ways throughout the year. Included among these honors are a special sweetheart banquet, her sweetheart serenade, and representation at state day.

Fraternity sweethearts chosen for the 1965-1966 year are Alice Barger, Barbara Bruder, Nora Campbell, Marcia Finke, Charlene Foster, Jeni Fryback, Judy McAvoy, and Dixie Trittschuh.

1965 Snow Queen—Miss Dianne Arbeiter

Snow Queen Adds Color to Winter Daze

Miss Dianne Arbeiter was crowned as Butler's first Snow Queen at the annual Phi Kappa Theta Christmas Tree Lighting. Miss Arbeiter is a sophomore currently majoring in Special Education. Dianne is a member of Kappa Alpha Theta sorority where she serves in the capacity of house manager. Many interests and activities continually busy this coed the year around. Dianne is a member of YWCA, SNEA, Spurs, and is a member of the DRIFT staff. Last year Dianne was TKE Sweetheart and a DRIFT Beauty Pageant finalist. Miss Arbeiter has spent several summers working in recreational therapy with the deaf and other physically-handicapped children.

Talented Coed Reigns as University's Miss Butler

Each year the Association of Women Students chooses one talented young lady to reign as the university's Miss Butler. This year the title is held by Miss Ruthie Baber. Ruthie is a junior from Peru, Indiana. Majoring in music and excelling in voice, Miss Butler finds much of her time filled with academic pursuits. Yet, Ruthie finds time to be an active member of the Kappa Kappa Gamma sorority. Her other campus activities include Chimes, Sigma Alpha Iota, and Kappa Delta Pi.

Angel Flight Adds Color To ROTC Uniform of Blue

For several years, the Air Force ROTC has sponsored an Air Angel and four squadron leaders. These five Butler coeds were chosen by the men enrolled in the ROTC program. In September of 1965 Angel Flight was installed on Butler's campus. Angel Flight is a national organization which originated in 1955 at the University of Nebraska. A conclave of Air Angels met this year, and a great deal of interest was fostered for a national organization. Butler's Angel Flight chapter is included in an area with sister chapters in Illinois, Kentucky, and the rest of Indiana. During April of 1966 a national convention of all the Angel Flight chapters was held in Dallas, Texas.

Butler's chapter initiated eighteen charter members. The chapter is lead by a commander. She is elected by the girls in the flight. Following her election she appoints the rest of the officers. Carolin Watanabe is the commander of the flight this year. Commander Watanabe hopes that the membership will gradually increase to thirty. A new membership program was initiated in which an open rush period is conducted in March. Girls meeting the necessary criteria are pledged. The main function of the organization is the promotion of the Air Force on campus. Their national project is the support of Fighter Unit 402 in Viet Nam. They also contribute to the USS Hope.

Angels spend part of their time discussing future strategy.

Hullabaloo Homecoming Broadcasts Victory

Miss Nora Campbell of the Kappa Alpha Theta Sorority began her reign as the 1965 Homecoming Queen on Friday afternoon of the annual Homecoming weekend. Nora, better known as "Soupie," plans to enter teaching as a profession. She is also president of the Kappa Alpha Theta Sorority and sweetheart of the Sigma Chi Fraternity. Nora was an elegant queen and reigned well over one of the finest Homecomings in the history of Butler University. Homecoming princesses were Miss Nancy Kern representing Schwitzer Memorial Hall and Miss Kathleen Frosch representing the Butler Independent Student Association. Miss Kern is presently social chairman for the dorm and a member of Tau Beta Sigma and Sigma Tau Delta. She is majoring in English and plans to enter the field of student counseling after her graduation from Butler. Miss Kathleen Frosch was the only freshman entering the Homecoming Queen competition. She is majoring in German. Others in the court were Lisa Gatti, Alpha Chi Omega; Karen Klink, Delta Gamma; Susan Long, Delta Delta Delta; Marla Lantz, Kappa Kappa Gamma; Judy Rodney, Pi Beta Phi; and Suzy Veters, Trianon.

The Homecoming Queen was announced by Garry Donna, president of Blue Key Honorary. President Jones crowned the queen and bracelets were given to each of the princesses. The queen and her court were introduced to the student body on three occasions: at the crowning ceremony, at the game, and at the Homecoming dance. The girls were present for all of the week-end activities. Two bands entertained at the dance on Saturday night. The annual Homecoming dance concluded in exquisite style the festivities for 1965-66.

Delta Gamma, Phi Delt Decs Are Tops

Delta Gamma and Phi Delta Theta took top honors in the 1965 Homecoming House Decoration competition. There were seventeen participating organizations in this year's contest. Second place finishers were Kappa Alpha Theta and Lambda Chi Alpha. Third place honors went to Delta Delta Delta and Tau Kappa Epsilon.

The themes of the winners were as follows: Delta Gamma, "Hinkleberry Hounds The Aces"; Phi Delta Theta, "Bulldogs Thrive on Rival"; Kappa Alpha Theta, "Aces Fold to Butler's Grand Slam"; Lambda Chi Alpha, "You'll Wonder Where the Aces Went When You Clean Them Out With Butler-Dent"; Delta Delta Delta, "Every Litter Bit Hurts"; Tau Kappa Epsilon, "Bulldogs Spin-ach Ace."

Homecoming— a H-e-l-labaloo Time

Students viewed and participated in the annual Homecoming events with joy and enthusiasm. The Friday afternoon events included the chariot race, won by Sigma Chi; the pushmobile race, won by Alpha Chi Omega and Phi Delta Theta; and the crowning of the Homecoming Queen. Friday evening there was a torchlight parade, bonfire, beard judging contest, and a pep session. Saturday Homecoming events included a greased pole fight, parade, the Homecoming game, and campus-wide open houses. The Alumni Association established a coffee tent and welcomed Butler alumni to the changed Fairview Campus.

We Give Many Expressions to Our Varied Moods

Faces betray true feelings while experiencing various aspects of college life. A study break at the C-Club contrasts vividly with the strain of a dramatic production . . . the loneliness of a soliloquy . . . the dimness of a C-Club booth . . . the glare of the footlights . . . all give expression to our moods.

Our Paths Diverge; We Begin Anew

We end only to begin again. The unknown replaces the familiar . . . new surroundings, new experiences, memories and departing . . . persons and places we shall never see again . . . sad, yet happy; reluctant to go, yet eager to prove ourselves in the world beyond college. Soon we will be forgotten; others will take our place. The world is open. Which path shall we take?

Academics

Dr. Jones Advocates Progress

Alexander E. Jones was inaugurated as Butler's fifteenth President in 1963. Since then our campus has witnessed much change. Irwin Library, Lilly Hall, and Clowes Memorial Hall are realities of Dr. Jones' progressive thought.

In addition to tangible improvements, Dr. Jones has worked to broaden Butler's academic faculties. Many new faces have been added to the staff since his administration took command.

In 1949 and 1950 Alexander E. Jones was awarded his Master of Arts Degree and his Doctor of Philosophy Degree from the University of Minnesota. Prior to this, he received his Bachelor of Arts Degree from Depauw University.

Vice-Presidents Administrate Butler's Affairs

Vice President John G. Johnson serves the present administration as the Director for Financial Development. This position has grown significantly with the Butler expansion programs.

Mr. Johnson was graduated from Carnegie Institute of Technology, with a Bachelor of Science Degree. He later became the Institute's Executive Secretary of the Alumni Federation. He is presently serving as an Associate Director of the American Alumni Council in Washington D.C.

Dr. Robert F. Sullivan holds one of the more recently created offices, Vice President for Academic Affairs. His primary responsibility is that of the Butler curriculum. In addition, Dr. Sullivan is the Associate Secretary of the Commission on Colleges and Universities of the North Central Association. In this capacity he aids the commission in counseling and accrediting universities throughout a nineteen state region. Dr. Sullivan received his Bachelor of Arts Degree from St. Bonaventure University of Chicago.

The Deans Co-ordinate Activities

Last fall Butler welcomed a new administrator to its ranks. Mrs. Mildred Jones entered the office of Dean of Women just in time to aid the campus sororities in the formal fall Rush period.

Dean Jones was graduated from the University of Iowa with a Bachelor of Science Degree and later earned the Master of Arts Degree. She is a member of the American Personnel and Guidance Association and also serves the National Association of Women Deans and Counselors.

Herbert F. Schwomeyer is a familiar face to Butler University. In 1942 he was graduated with a Bachelor of Science Degree. While in his senior year here, he was the President of Y.M.C.A., Student Council, and the Senior Class. He earned his Masters from Indiana University in '45 and returned to Butler as a lecturer in the theory of physical education. Herbert Schwomeyer soon joined the administration and worked in the Admissions Office. In 1956 he was appointed the Dean of Men. After twenty-one years at Butler, Dean Schwomeyer continues to work for the betterment of the university.

"There seems to be a mistake here."

Registrar, Bursar Balance Sums and Schedules

Butler's Registrar has quickly altered the method of class registration since he came to our university one year ago. Prior to this, Mr. Raymond Cawthorne was associated with the Cleveland Public School system. He has served as the registrar for Wheeling College and John Carroll University.

Having earned the Bachelor of Science Degree from Butler University, Mr. Raymond Gladden returned to Butler in 1939. Since that time he has served as Bursar managing all financial proceedings, from tuition to faculty salaries.

"Make your check for $525.00 please."

The College Administrators Manage Butler's Program

Butler University is comprised of many different offices, each of which contributes to the overall efficiency of the school. From the time of a student's admission until he becomes an alumnus of the University there is always someone working to further his progress and to solve his problems.

While the Butler reputation is spreading to new regions, the student body is also expanding. Our campus has grown; this growth will necessarily be of concern to the administration in creating new offices.

Mr. Lindberg supervises Butler grounds.

Dr. Christo Mocas directs Butler's Evening

Hal Wilkins and his assistant, Dick Cohron, program Alumni activities.

Division.

Public Relations reach new heights through Chris Theofanis.

University College Gives Orientation

Dr. Paul Robert Stewart directs the University College division. Having received his doctorate from the University of Illinois, Dr. Stewart is an associate professor of the English department.

University College is the first college in which most students are enrolled. This method of classification provides a broader educational base for the student. The freshman program requires courses in English, American History, foreign language, science, and mathematics. By the end of his sophomore year each student is prepared to specialize in his particular subject area. He also has numerous electives from other divisions of University College, such as public speaking, philosophy, religion, sociology, or geography. After completion of the basic academic requirements each Butlerite then enters his major subject area.

Home Economics helps to train future home-makers.

Physical Education develops mental attitudes as well as physical fitness.

University College seeks to build a broad educational base.

Liberal Arts Offers Broad Learning Base

The College of Liberal Arts and Sciences has three major objectives: to integrate the program of broad, liberal education provided in the divisions of the University College; to increase the knowledge of maturing upperclassmen; and to offer opportunities for specialization in fields of major interest. Dr. David M. Silver, a Butler graduate, serves in the capacity of Dean.

Dean Silver oversees Liberal Arts and Sciences.

"Human behavior is . . ."

"Lets see now . . ."

"Be careful! Don't cut the illiac artery."

"What's up, doc?"

Expansion Is the Trend In Education

The College of Education is expanding in the university. It is headed by Dean J. Hartt Walsh, who received his Ph.D. from the University of Wisconsin, his M.A. from the University of Minnesota, has held many offices in the field of education, and is distinguished by many professional affiliations and honors. Established in 1930, the College of Education has grown to include not only undergraduate students, but also a large contingent of those seeking the master's degree. With a three-fold purpose the college strives to educate teachers, supervisors, counselors, and administrators for all levels of education; to provide a base for further study in diverse fields of education, and to assist other schools and organizations by utilizing its own surveys, research, and mutual studies. Courses available in the College of Education include those acquainting prospective and present teachers with the situations that may be encountered in their work. Completion of requirements of the undergraduate level makes the student eligible for the Bachelor of Science degree and ready to assume a career.

Contemplation is reflected in the mood of these upper-classmen.

Student teaching is an invaluable experience in the field of education.

Surmounting obstacles is one road to success.

Food, drink, curling smoke, a deck of cards . . . all add up to an afternoon of Directed Observation.

Even with scholarly intentions, the weekends do catch-up with many seniors.

The "club" provides an outlet for those who study and discuss by noise.

Instructors put much vitality into their teaching techniques.

Teachers dedicate themselves to instilling a thought or an idea.

A gesture of the hand, a resonant voice . . . adds detail to an instructor's job.

Dean Roberts' daily routine is strictly business.

"Boy, am I glad I took this course!"

This typical student is deeply engrossed.

Modern equipment adds practicality to business courses.

"You had better get it right; I think he's watching."

Business at Butler Builds Bigger Buys

The College of Business Administration, headed by Dr. David R. Roberts, offers programs for the attainment of the Bachelors and Masters degrees in Business Administration. The undergraduate school has three main purposes. The first is to develop in the student a better understanding of today's world through the study of English, natural sciences, mathematics, and the social sciences. The second objective is to give the student the basic and analytic tools with which he will be working in the business future. The third purpose is to develop in the student a scientific approach to business. Overall, the emphasis in the College of Business Administration is upon the students' acquisition of basic knowledge and its application.

"Wait, and I'll explain."

They don't really have him stumped.

"Once, just once, I fell asleep in class."

To my darling . . .

"Alright, who erased the end board?"

Students devote many afternoons to laboratory work.

Chemical preparations are essential to the pharmacy program.

Pharmacists Are Essential To Society

Dr. Karl L. Kaufman is Dean of the College of Pharmacy. He received his Bachelor of Science degree at Ohio State and his doctorate from Purdue University.

The College of Pharmacy was established in 1945 when the former Indianapolis College of Pharmacy merged with Butler University. The school occupies a separate building in which are located modern laboratories, classrooms, and research facilities. After first acquiring a strong foundation in the basic sciences, pharmacy students learn preparation, compounding, and dispensing of drugs and chemicals. They also receive training in the proper methods of handling and distributing of commercial drugs and medicines. Their intensive lab provides experience in pharmacological and microscopic analysis. Their program of study is an extended one in contrast to the other Butler colleges. Consequently, students majoring in pharmacy will be seen on campus for five years and their long white coats are familiar evidences of the many working hours required in the laboratory.

The Jordan College of Music Enhances Student Talents

Professor Jackson K. Ehlert, Dean of the College of Music, attended the University of Minnesota where he received his Bachelor of Science and Master of Arts degrees. Dean Ehlert earned his Ed.D. degree from the University of Colorado.

Jordan College of Music, an amalgamation of the Metropolitan School of Music, and the Indiana College of Music joined Butler University in 1951. At this time Lilly Hall was erected to house Jordan College. It is located on the main campus and provides facilities for music and dance. In addition, there are temporary facilities for the drama department. These three fields are intermingled throughout the student's program. Anyone majoring in music, dance, or drama will be required to take courses in the other divisions. Consequently, Jordan's policy is to produce a well-rounded student with variety of talents.

Another division of study included under Jordan jurisdiction is the radio and television department. To give the students experience in this field, Butler University owns and operates radio station W.A.J.C. Their location is just west of the Hinkle Fieldhouse and many of their broadcasts include Butler sporting events. Their programs can be received on an F.M. tuner throughout central Indiana.

The students enrolled in Jordan College have a limited number of academic requirements in addition to their specific training. This type of format gives the world well-versed as well as talented and perfected performers.

Dean Ehlert heads the Jordan College of Music.

"Let's see now, could that possibly be a G flat?"

Seniors Put Trust in the Past to Face the Future

This year's Senior Class has accumulated an impressive record during their four years at Butler. They hoast of the presidency of numerous organizations as well as comparable honors including the Outstanding Male Student in 1965 and the Most Valuable Varsity Football Player in 1965. Indeed, they have shown commendable achievements. Not only are the seniors leaders and scholars, but also they are attractive and handsome! They take pride in having among them various fraternity sweethearts, the DRIFT

Beauty Queen, and the DRIFT Most Eligible Bachelor. Several senior coeds have been members of the "500" Festival Queen's Court. They also take pride in having in their midst two Homecoming Queens. More than one-third of the senior class is majoring in education. This means at least one semester of the long-awaited student teaching. Several pharmacy majors can be seen during the summer vacation gaining experience in their field. Yes, we're a busy but great senior class!

We seniors agree—"We're almost there."

The future is viewed by all with concern.

The last of our college memories are packed away as we begin anew.

Juniors Have Journeyed Courageously

The adventurous juniors have one more exciting year at Butler. So far, they have survived the "freshmen flings," the "sophomore slumps," and now, the "junior jumps." Whether or not "senioritis" will set in is unpredictable; but, this year's junior class can rest assured that their fourth and final year at Butler will be a memorable one.

Consistently and constantly the juniors have survived the first three and most challenging years of their college career. They are a class of unique individuals—individuals prepared to take over the lead. Already they have begun to be campus leaders as well as faithful followers. At a glance, one can see participation that is strong and enthusiastic from the juniors.

The juniors anticipate, advance, and advocate challenge—not only during their senior year, but throughout their entire lives. They are to be admired, for they have journeyed far from an inkling of an idea to inspiration from a belief. The life of a senior awaits them. We wish them well.

"It's not so long a stretch 'til we'll be seniors!"

Organizations

Mortar Board Caps Seniors For Outstanding Scholarship

*Kaye Higgs, president
Indianapolis, Indiana*

"Scholarship, leadership, and personality" are the basic requirements for senior Mortar Board members according to the lyrics of their tapping song. Each spring at the Matrix Table banquet outgoing Mortar Board members surprise the selected juniors who will comprise the next year's organization. These women must have a wide range of campus activities in addition to a 2.9 accumulative average.

The Butler organization of this national women's honorary is known as the Scarlet Quill chapter and is one of the 109 chapters throughout the country. They serve the university by sponsoring one of the largest and most important events of the year, Homecoming. Mortar Board members also compile departmental evaluations. These represent student analyses of the various courses available at Butler. The Mortar Board members provide tours of the campus to incoming freshmen. Thus, the functions of Mortar Board do not cease with academic endeavors.

*Bob Cargill, corresponding secretary

Blue Key members exemplify the qualities of leadership combined with academic achievement. These seniors represent Butler's top group of male students. Their organization renders many services to the university. As co-sponsors of Homecoming, they plan the entire weekend of festivities, with the help of Mortar Board. Deciding the central theme, organizing the individual events, and promoting alumni attendance are just a few of their tasks. This year's house decorations were based on various T.V. commercials with a "Hullabaloo Homecoming" theme. The Homecoming dance was held at the Indiana Roof and proved to be a great success. In general, Blue Key and Mortar Board produced a very enjoyable and profitable Homecoming for students, faculty, and alumni of Butler University.

This organization was originally a national group. It now functions on a local basis. Similar organizations are established at other Indiana colleges and universities with one of their school colors preceding the word "key." Each spring the eligible junior men are initiated into the club. They receive the pin and crested blazers which identify them as Blue Key members.

This year's chapter was headed by Garry Donna, president, and Bill Neher, vice-president. These men furnished the leadership to unify Blue Key and to bring it student and faculty recognition and praise.

Chimes ring out for SCAF.

Chimes Ring Out With Cheer For University, Community

A football game would not be complete without a Chimes candy apple. This traditional sale has almost become synonymous with the organization itself. Chimes is a junior honorary established to recognize women students with outstanding grades and activities. They support several philanthropic projects and help needy families at Thanksgiving and Christmas. In addition to community service Chimes gives hours of their time to help the academic departments of the university. They also support the Student Council Fair with a "Ring the Chime" booth.

This fall the junior Chimes members helped the Registrar during registration week and periodically throughout the year. They also aided Dr. Nicholas Cripe when high school debaters came to Butler. The Chimes members gave tours of the campus to these interested students.

Each spring a new group of women is chosen to carry on the traditions of this organization. These girls are selected on the basis of their academic rating and campus activities. Only twenty-five junior women are honored with membership. They are usually surprised by the group when they appear ringing small bells.

This year Judy Nicholas, president of Chimes, guided the organization through a profitable and exciting year. The members of Chimes are proud of the little bell shaped pin for it represents both honor and much work.

Butler Spurs Earn National Improvement Award

The Butler Spur chapter is one of forty-three in the country. This national organization was founded in Colorado where its headquarters are now located. Most of the sister Spur chapters are located in the far west and the Butler chapter is the only one in the Midwest.

A regional convention is held every two years and a national meeting convenes on the alternate years. Last summer during the national convention the Butler Spurs were honored with the "Most Improved Chapter" award. Spur members earned this honor through increased service to the university and the community.

Among the projects which they sponsor on campus is the "Pathway to Pennies." This is a charity campaign to help needy children. The members of Spurs collect small change from both students and professors. At Christmas, Spurs organizes another charity project whereby they purchase gifts for the children of Flanner House. Through programs such as these the women of Spurs have rightly earned the reputation of an outstanding service organization composed of sophomores with high academic ratings.

Utes Exhibit Scholarship, Leadership

Service to the university is the main objective of Utes, which is the sophomore men's honorary. The group is selected on the basis of scholarship and extra-curricular activities. The new members are chosen from the freshmen class in the spring. After initiation, they take over the responsibilities of the organization and sponsor many campus events. Each spring they hold a basketball banquet honoring the Butler team and coaching staff. The dinner is served in Atherton Center and awards are given to top team members. Prior to this function, Utes sponsors a booth in the Student Council Activities Fair. This is one type of service that Utes renders to the students at Butler University.

Debate Team, Sphinx Strive for Honors

Traveling throughout the Midwest has become routine for the Butler debaters. It has also become routine for them to bring back tall trophies. All these awards are representative of the many hours and long afternoons spent in training for the debates. Endeavors in any field bring reward to the devoted individuals. Junior men who have excelled in academics and have participated in campus activities are honored by membership to Sphinx. This organization sponsors the annual football banquet, the freshman-sophomore greased pole fight, and the junior-senior pie throw.

ΑΛΔ and ΦΗΣ Exemplify Highest Scholarship

Freshmen women who have attained a 3.5 grade average are honored with membership in the national honorary, Alpha Lambda Delta. This organization was founded in 1926 and since that time has expanded to over one hundred sister chapters.

This year's active members have chosen Anne Fisher to preside as president and faculty member, Miss Nancy Moore, as their sponsor.

Each fall Alpha Lambda Delta in conjunction with Phi Eta Sigma sponsor a tea in the Holcomb Garden House. The purpose of this event is to encourage high school students to attend Butler University.

Phi Eta Sigma is an honorary for freshmen men which parallels Alpha Lambda Delta. The academic requirements for membership are a 3.5 cumulative average. The members have again selected Dr. Roland Usher to sponsor their organization. With these high standards the members strive toward excellence in all fields of endeavor throughout the academic atmosphere.

Delta Psi Kappa is a national women's honorary for physical education majors and minors. Butler women are selected for membership on the basis of their academic standing and athletic activities. This year's group is headed by Nora Campbell who attended the organization's national convention last spring in Washington, D.C.

Rho Chi is a unique honor society which promotes pharmaceutical interests. The novelty of this organization is its membership—comprised of both students and professors. The organization has a research oriented program and stimulates its members through a variety of guest speakers.

The requirements for admittance to Rho Chi are that a student must have a 3.0 minimal average and must have completed seventy percent of his pharmacy courses. Members of Rho Chi emphasize fellowship and the search for knowledge in the constantly expanding field of pharmacy.

Phi Delta Chi is the largest professional fraternity for pharmacists in the country. Its primary purpose is to bring together those men with common academic interests. Butler's Dr. Dale Doerr is presently the Grand National President of Phi Delta Chi. Pledges of Phi Delta Chi perform functional tasks around the pharmacy building and the organization as a whole takes the responsibility for a display window in the college.

Alpha Sigma chapter of Phi Mu Alpha Sinfonia was founded in 1926. It has always been active in musical activities. Students demonstrating their abilities in music and in high academic achievement are elected to this fraternity. Dr. John Colbert is the faculty advisor. The officers for 1965 are Robert Hinkle, president; Jack Simon, treasurer; and Steve Robey, historian.

Kappa chapter of Mu Phi Epsilon was established at Jordan College of Music in 1906. It is a sister organization to Phi Mu Alpha Sinfonia. Only the outstanding students are elected to the fraternity each year based on academic achievement as well as musical talent. The organization performs at various functions for patrons and alumni. In conjunction with Phi Mu Alpha Sin-fonia, Mu Phi Epsilon awards a music scholarship each year. The money for this scholarship is raised through a variety of performances and activities. This year's officers were Marguerite Stivers, president; Gloria Osman, secretary; and Marcia Dickerson, alumni correspondent; Kathy Norris, treasurer; Kathy Davidson, historian; Barbara Miller, corresponding secretary.

Happiness Is Belonging to TBS and KKY

"Happiness Is Tau Beta Sigma and Kappa Kappa Psi" was the motto for the Butler University Marching Band's annual Band Banquet this year. For the first time these two organizations combined their respective groups and sponsored this event.

Tau Beta Sigma is a national sorority for college bandwomen while Kappa Kappa Psi is a national fraternity for college bandmen. An instrumental background and profound interest in college bands are two of the basic requirements for pledgship. Members are eligible for their respective organizations after completing two semesters in marching band.

The officers of Tau Beta Sigma this past year were Sara Stoner, president; Linda Tyner, vice-president; Judy McAvoy, treasurer; and Nancy Hoover, secretary. Kappa Kappa Psi officers include Jack Simon, president; Stephen Varnell, pledge trainer; Ralph Eaton, treasurer; and Bill Greif, secretary.

AFROTC Strengthens Our Defense

In July of 1862 Congress enacted the Land Grant Act, which is the foundation of the ROTC program. This act facilitated the establishment in every state of at least one college in which military tactics would be taught. The National Defense Act of 1916 provided for the establishment of the Reserve Officers Training Corps as a source of officers for the newly authorized Office Reserve Corps. Historically, then, the Air Force ROTC became a part of the educational scene as a democratic way to prepare citizens in time of peace for military leadership in time of war, as well as to benefit those who will remain civilians. Butler is proud to have a division of this organization on its campus.

Aerospace Offers Vast Field of Opportunities

The Challenge of new frontiers have been presented through the study of air science. Aerospace powers have been now recognized as the primary means for preserving peace, yet planes and missiles are not enough in themselves—capable leadership is needed for tomorrow and for the years ahead, the leadership of intelligent, responsible citizens, the young men who are now cadets.

The first two years the curriculum emphasizes the potentials of air and space power and the importance of the Air Force and its mission of preserving peace, as well as a clear and concise explanation of the career opportunities in the Air Force. During the last two years the course of study concentrates upon the personal development as an individual cadet into a capable leader.

The job opportunities in the AFROTC are vast and range from pilots to scientists, administrators and engineers. Programs of advanced study are also available in the Air Force. Students enrolled in ROTC attend a summer camp which further prepares them for the responsibilities of the military career. The Butler cadets certainly exemplify the fine training offered by the division.

There Are Few Earthly Things

More Splendid Than a University

It Is a Place Where . . .

It is a place
where those who hate ignorance
may strive to know;
where those who perceive truth may strive to make others see . . .

. . . where seekers and learners alike band together
in the search for knowledge,
will honor thought in all its finer ways,
will welcome thinkers
in distress or in exile,
will uphold ever the dignity of thought and learning and will exact standards in these things.

They give to the young in their impressionable years
the bond of a lofty purpose shared,
of a great corporate life whose links
will not be loosed until they die,
They give young people that close companionship for which youth longs,
and that chance of the endless discussion of the themes which are endless—without which youth would seem a waste of time.

There are few earthly things
more enduring than a university.

In these days of broken frontiers and collapsing values,
when the dams are down
and the floods are making misery, when every future looks somewhat grim and every ancient foothold has become something of a quagmire . . .

. . . wherever a university stands,
It stands and shines;
wherever it exists,
the free minds of men,
urged on to full and fair inquiry,
may still bring wisdom into human affairs.

Student Council Looks Toward The Future

This year was a year of vast improvement and outlook toward the future of the Butler University Student Council. At the helm for the 1965-66 campaign were Alan Monroe, Dan Warfel, Ralph Ogden, Sallyann Rapp, Sharon Sperry, Bill Hine and Drew Anderson.

The core of success stemmed from the formation of several committees two of which were the Student Involvement and Welfare committee and the Intellectual and Academic Life committee. Through these committee's work, many rewarding ideas were developed: a bus trip to Ball State, special student rates on many Clowes Hall performances, and a folk-sing weekend. Also highlighting the year's achievements was guest speaker Hans Conreid.

Within the organization itself, a fund was established for future speakers. Revisions and amendments were introduced, and better administrative relations were accomplished.

Annual projects such as SCAF, The Gavel, and a dance were termed huge successes.

Student Council presented a skit during the activities fair.

Panhel Unites Greek Women

Maryke Dost and Sandy Husser assist Mary Hull with Junior Panhel.

Lynn Bland, Elaine Collier, and Dixie Tritschuh lead Panhel.

The Butler Panhel Association is one of the most essential groups on campus. During the week of formal Rush, these girls in cooperation with Dean Jones supervise all the aspects of Rush. They set up the rules and determine the budget for participating sororities.

The council consists of the president, rush chairman, and one delegate from each housing unit. This group meets weekly throughout the year. They sponsor several campus activities such as Greek Week. This period is designated to mock both sorority rushing parties and fraternity line-ups. However, the prime objective of the week is to strengthen Greek relationships on campus and to promote the Greek system in general. This year's Greek Week lasted from February 21st through the 26th. On Wednesday night there were exchange dinners and mock rush parties. The fraternities sponsored their notorious line-ups on Thursday night. Class slumber parties followed a campus mixer for the Friday entertainment. The concluding event was the formal Panhel Dance which was held on Saturday in the Indiana Medical Center. The highlight of the evening was the crowning of the Panhel King who was chosen by sorority votes.

Early in the fall panhel gives a banquet honoring all the newly selected Greek pledges. At this time the officers are introduced and the pledges receive small gifts relating to their own sorority. The zenith of the banquet is the awarding of the Scholarship Trophy and the Sigma Chi "Most Outstanding Sorority" trophy.

Junior Panhel is a similar organization with representatives from the pledge classes. They work with the senior council to promote and fortify the Greek way of life.

This year's Junior Panhel was headed by Mary Hull, president; Sandy Husser, vice-president; and Marke Dost, secretary-treasurer. Their council boosted Christmas spirits with a fraternity caroling event. After this the pledge classes warmed up with a "hot-chocolate" celebration at the Alpha Chi house.

The senior council of the Panhellenic Association was led by Dixie Tritschuh, president; Elaine Collier, vice-president; and Lynn Bland, secretary-treasurer. These sorority women have united to enhance the fraternity idea and carry out programs which will be to its betterment.

In 1891 the first Panhellenic Convention was held in Boston. Since that time women have met to discuss fraternity problems and to discover methods for improved cooperation. They have established a constitution, a set of by-laws, a code of regulations, and have become one of the most respected national organizations of the day . . . The National Panhellenic Association.

Interfraternity Council Insures Campus Unity

The Interfraternity Council, otherwise known as I.F.C. is composed of one officer from each of the eight Greek letter fraternities on campus. These men with the assistance of their faculty adviser, Dean Herbert F. Schwomeyer, develop rules to insure unity and cooperation among the fraternities. They set up the rush rules for all the organizations. Through this group scholarship reports among fraternities are regulated and good scholarship is encouraged.

One of their projects is the sale of the traditional freshmen beanies. These little green bits of headgear are the cause of a great deal of activity in the fall of each year, and serve to draw freshmen into the stream of campus life.

One of their more serious efforts has been in the direction of Social Probation. The I.F.C. council has campaigned vigorously this year in order to obtain an increase in powers and voice in these matters. The Interfraternity Council also serves as co-sponsors of Greek Week. In conjunction with Panhel, they help formulate the week's calendar of activities. They personally take charge of sending invitations to all Greek women requesting that they attend the fraternity mock line-ups. These line-ups are fun-filled experiences.

Howard Conley served as this year's I.F.C. president. He was assisted by Ron Salatich, vice-president; Gene Milner, secretary; and Bob Meyers, treasurer.

Religious Council Brings Campus Coffee House

The Religious Council is one of Butler's inspirational groups. Their primary goal is to encourage college students to take an active part in the church of their choice. They hold fascinating seminars and discussion groups to stimulate interest. This year the Religious Council worked on a money making project which brought forth much campus support. They converted a room in the basement of the Newman house into a coffee house where students provide their own entertainment. The council members created much atmosphere through the utilization of old furniture, a little new paint, and several candles and coffee cups. Students volunteered to serve as waitresses and entertainment was provided by different campus talent. The Religious Council was headed this year by Brooks Freeman, president.

Butler C.S.O. Gives Series of Lectures

The Christian Science Organization is one of the most active religious groups on campus. Each fall they sponsor an open house for all interested students. They continue to meet throughout the year on Monday evenings in Atherton Center. About twice a year the organization plans a pleasure trip. This year the group had a picnic on a nearby farm. They spent the afternoon sledding and later warmed up around a big camp fire.

The major projects of the C.S.O. are the presentation of two lectures. For these occasions they invite well known speakers and lectures are open to all Butler students.

The officers for this year were Leslie Blair, president; Shannon Kelly, vice-president; and Lisa Gatti, treasurer. These co-eds guided the Christian Science Organization through the year.

Methodists Participate in Local Affairs

The Methodist Student Movement is another Butler organization oriented toward religious interests. The group holds a series of discussions and conferences to probe the existing problems of today's modern church. Under the direction of Dr. Elbery C. Cole, pastor of the North Methodist Church, M.S.M. has taken an active part in state Methodist activities. The student movement has also accepted responsibilities in a special national conference.

Membership to this organization is open to all students interested in the problems of religion. Ann Johnston led the group as the Methodist Student Movement's fifth Butler president. She was assisted by Judy Hardin who served as vice-president and Carolyn Bennett acting as secretary-treasurer.

Arousing campus interest can be stated as the prime objective of the Methodist movement. Gaining notable response has been their main achievement.

Psychology Club Interest in Human Behavior

The Psychology club is comprised of those students who are interested in this field of study. The organization presents numerous programs which stimulate participation. They invite psychologists, psychoanalysts, and well known psychiatrists to speak at their meetings.

One of their yearly projects is to sponsor a booth in the Student Council Activities Fair. This year the Psychology club won first place at the fair as the most original and best booth. Their theme was cleverly related to their field of interest; it was a fortune telling booth. The members alternated as the viewer of the crystal ball.

Gayle Augustine presided over the activities of the Psychology club this year. Carol Anderson served as vice-president; Pat Kolb, secretary; Carolyn Lehr, treasurer; and Heather Griffitt was program chairman.

Welwyn Club Promotes Friendship

The Welwyn Club promotes friendship among college coeds. It accomplishes this through their method of association. Each meeting is patterned after an informal social party; they combine business and pleasure.

The name Welwyn is an old English term meaning "welcome." The main goal of the organization is three fold: to promote an interest in home economics, to provide more knowledge of opportunities, and to publicize home economics in the university and the state.

Welwyn Club completed its twenty-sixth year of service to the university under the direction of Kaaren Knudson, president. Ellamarie Stouffer assisted Kaaren as vice-president. Other officers were Ann Lyon, treasurer; and Pat Slaughter, secretary. Mrs. Sara Porter served as the faculty adviser.

"Collegian" Is Voice of Student Body

Every Wednesday and Friday students swarm into Jell Hall to pick up a copy of the Butler Collegian. This publication is the source of campus news, state and local information, and world events. The paper was established in 1886 and is affiliated with the Hoosier State Press Association and the United States Student Press Association.

This year the Collegian was headed by Lynn Bland, Editor-in-chief; Craig Ito, Managing editor; Karen Klink, Copy editor; Mike Kent, Linda Haifley, and Barbara Brown, Copy desk; John Ullmann, City editor; Charles Hart, Sports editor; Dan Craft, Business manager; Alan Monroe, Ralph Ogden, and Paul Davis, columnists. Sue Long and Barb Zally were the Social editors.

The semi-weekly publication offers opportunities to those students interested in the field of journalism and communications. Colonel John Barron, head of the Journalism school, serves as the faculty adviser.

Top Award DRIFTS to Butler Book

The Butler DRIFT has become a part of the University tradition. It is one of the few books which students read from cover to cover. The DRIFT encompasses all facets of college life . . . from sports to academics. It is published each spring and distributed to approximately 1200 students.

The yearbook's source of income is derived through the sale of advertisements, organization contracts, and a beauty pageant.

The 1964-65 DRIFT was rated one of the nation's "Top Twelve Yearbooks." For this honor the staff received a plaque which is proudly displayed in the DRIFT office. Each year this group of students strives to present Butler with a better yearbook.

DRIFT Staff Coordinates All Sections

Producing a yearbook is a big job. It requires hours of photographing, writing, and designing layouts. Each member of the staff is responsible for a specific area of the book. These students schedule pictures and gather information. After their job is done the acquired materials are passed to a different group who compile the data and turn out the finished product.

Student Education Association Promotes Teaching Interest

Butler University's Student Education Association has a history of outstanding accomplishments. One member of their chapter was the Student Education Association National President. Membership in SEA can be a profitable venture in that it often serves as a stepping stone to professional vocations.

For some reason, this young man seems unwilling to purchase an apple.

Every spring the Butler English department issues a publication of student manuscripts. This booklet is produced through the efforts of departmental professors, freshmen class representatives, and the editor and staff.

Theta Sigma Phi is a national women's honorary. This organization is comprised of Butler students majoring in journalism or who have contributed to a campus publication. One of their annual projects is the Matrix Table Banquet which honors outstanding sophomore, junior, and senior students. At this time Theta Sigma Phi presents the Spoke, Hub, and Wheel awards in recognition for outstanding campus activities.

After graduation the members of this organization are admitted to the professional group of Theta Sigma Phi. Each year they sponsor various writing contests throughout the country.

Young Butler Politicians Plan Ahead

Butler's Young Republicans is one of the most active groups on campus. It is composed of those students who are interested in learning more about the political situations of today. The organization presents selective programs of well-known Indiana politicians. This year the club was addressed by H. Dale Brown, the chairman of the Republican party in Indiana.

Among their other activities, the organization sends representatives to the Midwest Republican Convention. Last spring, Carly Fox attended the National Republican Convention in San Francisco, California. It was held in the famed Cow Palace. Miss Fox was the chairman of the Goldwater demonstration. Such experiences prepare students to be more active voters.

Campus Unity Is Main Goal of AWS

The Association of Women Students is one of the more popular organizations on campus. Its major purpose is being the connecting link between the coed and the Butler administration. The club is comprised of executive officers and their advisory cabinet. Many major events and activities throughout the year are sponsored by AWS. At the first mass meeting of the year, all freshmen are required to present an original skit. "Miss Butler" is selected by AWS and will later represent the school in the Miss Indiana contest. A valuable asset to any frustrated freshman is the issuance of CO-ED CODES, the annual student guide. Other scheduled programs of interest to women students range from hair styling to medical talks.

Sallyann Rapp, president, is assisted by Ruth Killion, vice-president; Pat Dunifon, secretary; and Sue Long, treasurer, in managing AWS activities.

Ideals, Goals Influenced by YM-YWCA

The YM-YWCA is one of the major co-educational organizations at Butler. Although they are individual groups, they function as one in their activities and programs.

Each year they present the annual Spring Sing. Sara Stoner and Steve Schneider will serve as the chairmen of this event. In addition, each organization will compete for a place in the six act presentation, Geneva Stunts.

The Y-Round Table discussions have become quite popular on campus. They are held in the Campus Club and led by members of the faculty. These groups discuss many world problems from population to politics.

Another activity of the YM-YWCA is to publish a campus directory known as the Butler BLUE BOOK. This year it was produced through the efforts of Polly Palmer and Bob Cargill.

The officers for the YWCA are Eve Jones, district representative; Marilyn Meyers, president; and Nancy Mosel, vice-president. Steve Jones, vice-president; Cal Koepfel, secretary; and John King, treasurer, help in coordinating YMCA's busy schedule.

W R A Sponsors "Refreshing Recreational Study Break"

"Refreshing recreation" is the motto of the Butler Women's Recreation Association. The governing body of this organization is comprised of three divisions: the executive officers, the Advisory Board, and the Sports Council. The latter group organizes and carries out an intramural program which offers both team and individual sports. The Advisory Board is the mainstay between house and organizational relationships and also executes authority over all game rulings and regulations. WRA is a highly supported extracurricular activity on campus, and is considered "a great study break" by all who participate.

The Women's Recreation Association also sponsors extra-mural teams in volleyball, softball, basketball, badminton, and field hockey. These teams play various Indiana colleges and travel throughout the state. This type of athletic activity promotes sportsmanship.

WRA officers for 1965-66 have been Nora Campbell, president; Judy Wenning, vice-president; Pam Lassiter, secretary; Carlene Allen, treasurer; Karen Averitt, publicity chairman; and Kathy Carr, social chairman.

Action High as Playnight is Success

The Women's Recreation Association has institutionalized a new idea in sports, the Butler Playnite. For this event the women's gymnasium is leased for an evening. Set up within the gym are all the various sporting games, ping pong, basketball, tumbling mats, and even a trampoline. Life guards are stationed in the pool area so Butler students can swim even in the middle of winter. In addition there is archery, volleyball, and badminton. The novelty of the event is that it is open to the entire student body and admission is free.

The Monte Carlo party is another activity sponsored by the Women's Recreation Association; it is a mock casino. Each person receives "play money" and may gamble at any of the various games. At the termination of the party the "play money" can be refunded for prizes. Activities such as this promote a friendly campus spirit throughout the student body. Thus, WRA succeeds in developing both good sportsmanship and student spirit.

Swimming is one activity at WRA Playnight.

Cheerleaders Strive to Arouse Campus Spirit

The 1965 Butler Cheerleading Squad was composed of six varsity cheerleaders and two alternates. The girls are selected in the fall of each year on the basis of ability, pep, and enthusiasm. Under the direction of Nora Campbell, captain, and

Dr. Henzie, faculty advisor, the cheerleaders practice three hours a week during the football and basketball seasons. During the basketball banquet a third year award was presented to Nora Campbell. Chip Dillon, Hilary Stout, and Sandy Baker received their second year awards. First year awards were given to Diane Meyer and Vicki Wright. Alternates were Susie McNew and Renee Royer. These eight co-eds add enthusiasm to our athletic contests.

Honeys Highlight Half-Time

The nationally famous Butler University Half-Time Honeys is a precision marching corps composed of twenty Butler co-eds. The girls are chosen each fall on the basis of appearance, marching, dancing ability, and personality. Receiving one hour credit and a tuition reduction each year, the girls must practice for one hour, five days a week. They perform at all home football and basketball games. The captain of the Half-Time Honeys is Sara Stoner.

In addition to the marching corps there are six Butler majorettes. Headed by Alice Barger, these girls are also seen at all home games. Each week a featured twirler performs a solo routine with the band. This year the Half-Time Honeys and majorettes were featured with the band in their first Clowes Hall performance. # Coaches Are Backbone of Butler Athletics

Tony Hinkle assumed his role as the head coach at Butler University forty-five years ago. Since that time, through work and dedication, he has brought national acclaim to our athletic teams. Hinkle is one of the few remaining mentors to coach three major sports. This year, in recognition of his outstanding achievements in the realm of athletics, he was inducted into the Naismith Hall of Fame. In addition to this honor, Hinkle is also a member of the Helms Foundation Basketball Hall of Fame.

While at Butler he has had two National Championship basketball teams, been elected president of the National Collegiate Basketball Coaches Association, been four-time ICC Football Coach of the Year, three-time ICC Basketball Coach of the Year, and one-time ICC Baseball Coach of the Year.

Coach Jim Hauss has been the head line coach and golf coach at Butler for eighteen years. He was the 1965 ICC golf coach of the year.

Since 1931 Coach "Pop" Hedden has been a member of Butler's coaching staff. He now has charge of tennis as well as the freshman football and basketball teams.

Bill Sylvester has just ended his second year coaching the backfield of the football team.

In 1945 Galvin Walker began his career at Butler. He now has charge of the Bulldog cross country and track teams.

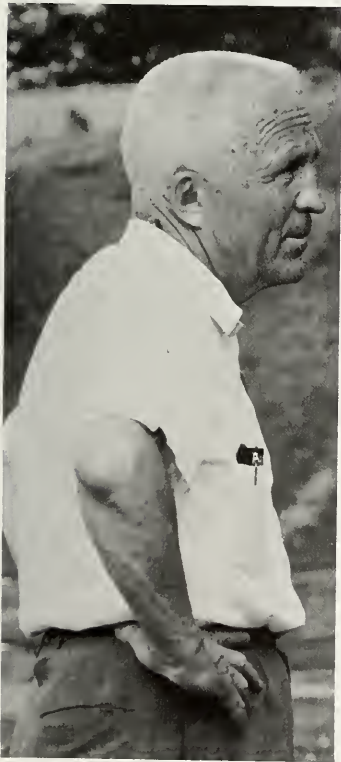

Butler University has these men to thank for their success in the development of outstanding athletes and men.

Spring Sports Add "Spice" to Butler's Athletics

As the crowd leaves the Butler field-house after the last home basketball game their thoughts turn from the Bulldog sports world to the coming spring vacation and sunny weather. Yet approximately fifty Butler men find themselves anticipating the spring sports season. Countless hours of practice and hard work are given by each individual in an effort to secure a victory for their team and school.

Just as a football or basketball player devotes himself to his sport, so must a golf, tennis, track, and baseball man. Butler's spring sports are an important part of our second semester. As Tony Hinkle would say, "They get the job done."

Strained muscles pull toward a victorious finish.

To triumph, athletes must strive to overcome obstacles.

Body co-ordination is a prerequisite for success.

A dedicated athlete can suffer the pain of competition.

Baseball, Golf Teams Boast Winning Seasons

Coach Tony Hinkle's 1965 edition of the Butler Bluesox took the field again last spring, and finished with a very profitable season. Although the diamondmen compiled an overall record of nine wins and ten losses they did capture third place in the ICC with a very respectable seven win and five loss record. After a slow start, the team picked up momentum and gained victories over tough Indiana and Marian teams, and swept doubleheaders with St. Joseph and Ball State. The bluesox demonstrated good team play, highlighted by the pitching of Ron Iwema and Dave Crawford, the fielding of Stan Koby and Marty Svihra, and the hitting of Dave Enright and Dave Parker. The Bulldogs must fill the vacancies left by the departed Ron Iwema and Dave Parker, but with most of the squad returning for another season, the future looks bright.

Last spring, a familiar sight was seen on the golf course. Butler's golf team again captured the number one spot in ICC golf competition. It was the third consecutive year that a Butler golf team won the conference crown. Under Coach Jim Hauss, the linksmen finished the season with a fine record of eight wins, three losses, and one tie. Outstanding performances were turned in by Lee Evans, Ron Quigg, Newell Easley, and Randy Foxworthy. A senior, Evans won three straight Indiana Collegiate Conference golf championships. He also took the Little State crown in 1963. Last year he finished seventh in the NCAA college tourney. He compiled an 18-hole average of 71.2 in tourney play as a collegian the last three years. In recognition of his success, Evans received the coveted Andy Williams Award for mental attitude and leadership as a student and athlete.

Spring sports at Butler mean not only the crack of a bat or a golfer's swing, but also the sound of a smashing serve. Butler's 1965 tennis team, although not successful in its overall record, did gain valuable experience throughout the season. Enthusiastic team spirit was shown at all times. Coach Frank "Pop" Hedden was satisfied with the effort put forth by his team members. Against strong ICC competition, commendable performances were turned in by Gordon Tabor, and Don Thompson. The 1966 season shows much promise because of a talented freshmen group moving up to varsity ranks. Steve Carroll, Darrell Davies, Vince Mernicki, and Dan Wojcik, in addition to four returning lettermen, will be competing on the varsity level. The Butler tennis team is definitely on the way up.

Gordon Tabor, Rick Parks, Don Thompson, Steve Carroll

Track and Tennis Men Show Competitive Spirit

Butler's 1965 track team, under the leadership of Coach Galvin Walker, paced their way through a vigorous campaign. Facing the state's perennial track powers such as Notre Dame, Indiana State, and Purdue, the Bulldogs, although not highly successful, did manage to give a strong account of themselves. Coach Walker's thinclads were led by ICC broad jump champion and co-captain Jim Petty. Others who contributed to the team effort were dash man Denny Walters, javelin thrower Jim Seymour, high jumper Steve Sadler, and shot putters Bill Remmo and Steve Gross. Despite their fifth place finish in the ICC, Butler's track men can look forward to a strong team in the 1966 season. This is due to the fact that they will have several of their outstanding lettermen returning to the squad.

Bulldogs Are Second in ICC Conference Race

Although the Bulldogs failed in their bid to win an unprecedented 8th consecutive ICC championship, they did finish with a very successful season. The 1965 Bulldogs comprised the number one defense in the ICC and the second most powerful running team, second only to Ball State. The Bulldogs was a team which averaged over 300 yards per game in total offense, thus indicating the balanced attack of the team. The outstanding individuals were honored by being chosen for the ICC All Conference Team. They were Tom Sayer at offensive tackle, Dick Dullaghan at defensive halfback, and Ken Lefler at defensive linebacker. Butler finished with an overall record of 6 wins and 3 losses and second place in the ICC with a 4 and 2 record.

Tony Hinkle hands the coveted All-Conference certificate to Ken Leffler, Tom Sayer, and Dick Dullaghan.

Dullaghan Cops Top Honors

Dick Dullaghan took top honors at the Butler Football Awards Banquet by being chosen the Most Valuable Player of 1965 and winning the Hilton U. Brown award for leadership and mental attitude.

Leading and keeping the team morale high at all times was one reason for winning the Hilton U. Brown Award as well as activities off the gridiron. Dullaghan was top scorer with sixty-six points.

Bulldogs Victorious in First Three Encounters

The success of Butler's 1965 football campaign started quickly as the Bulldogs beat TAYLOR 41 to 6. Playing in almost unbearable heat, Butler showed a strong preview of things to come. Against INDIANA STATE, the Bulldogs put forth a tenacious defense which thwarted the Sycamores' every move.

Quarterback Joe Purichia threw key passes to ends Steve Sadler and Dave Sutphin to set up Butler touchdowns. Chuck Dennison put the game away for the Bulldogs with a 30 yard pass interception for the final score, making it 27 to 7.

The Pumas of ST. JOSEPH found the going just as rough as they fell 21 to 12 to the Bulldogs. Butler's 21 points were all scored in the second quarter. It was not a difficult matter, then, to know that the Bulldogs were headed for a victorious season.

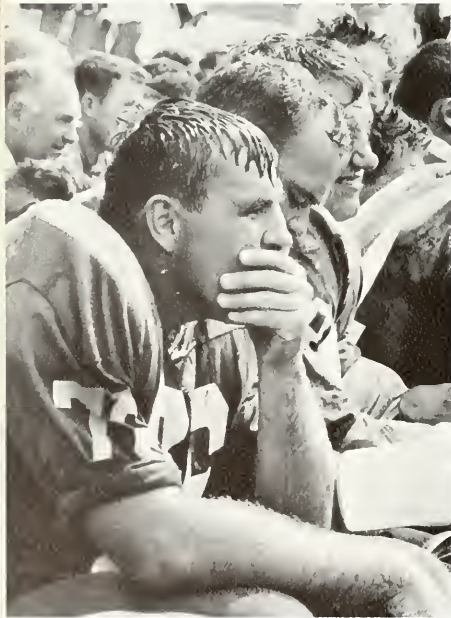

Receiving the opening kickoff, halfback Jeff Brodine evades Taylor men and scores the first touchdown.

Butler Fans Laud Team's 42-0 Victory

Butler suffered its first loss of the season when the Bulldogs dropped a 23 to 21 decision to an inspired VALPARAISO team. Valpo scored the first time they had their hands on the ball and continued with a strong attack throughout the first half. Butler came on strong in the second half to take a 21 to 20 lead thanks to the running of Dan Warfel and Denny Walters. Then with just over a minute remaining, Valpo's Tom Dohrmann booted a 25-yard field goal to win the game for them. The final score was 23 to 21.

The Bulldogs made Homecoming a complete success by routing EVANSVILLE 42 to 0. Just about everyone got in the act as the Bulldogs amassed over 400 total yards. Brilliant punt returns by Dick Dullaghan and good power running by Warfel and Dennison made Butler virtually untouchable throughout the game. In the fourth quarter Coach Tony Hinkle had a chance to see if his third and fourth teams could move the ball, and that they did for they scored once and managed to keep possession of the ball until the finish. The win marked the fourth of the season.

ICC Conference Champs Overpower Bulldogs

Butler went to Muncie for its showdown encounter with Ball State's undefeated Cardinals. The ICC championship would go to the winner of the game. The Card's strong running attack and some unexpected passes put them ahead to stay after withstanding numerous Bulldog thrusts. Ball State remained unbeaten by defeating the Bulldogs 22 to 7, much to the dismay of the many Butler fans who sat through the rain to cheer their team to a hopeful victory. Bouncing back after the loss to Ball State, Butler finished its ICC conference schedule with a victory over DEPAUW. As always, DePauw made it a close contest gaining a touchdown from a long pass late in the game. The Tigers, using the same play, completed another long pass, but the Bulldogs managed to stop the threat and win 14 to 8.

Season Ends With a Victory

With its ICC season complete, Butler faced non-conference opponent, the University of Akron. The score remained tied throughout most of the game. However, in the closing seconds Akron scored, thus winning the game 14 to 7.

The final game of the season saw the Bulldogs in a Dad's Day encounter with Western Kentucky. In the first three quarters Western built up a 20 to 0 lead.

Then in the fourth quarter, Jeff Brodine intercepted a Hilltopper pass and ran it back, thus setting up a touchdown play. Brodine intercepted two more aerials to set up Butler scores. The last touchdown came when Purichia hit Dave Sutphin for an 11 yard gain on a crucial fourth down play. Purichia then hit halfback Mike Harrison in the end zone for the spectacular Bulldog win.

At the annual Football Banquet the senior members of the team are presented with a plaque from the members of Sphinx in recognition of their service to the team. The bulldogs will be losing eleven seniors.

Players who received their senior plaque were: Tom Sayer, David Sutphin, Bob Crawford, Jim Kutschke, Joe Purichia, Joe Dezelan, Ken Leffler, Bill Torchia, Dave Enright, Dick Dullaghan, and Larry Golomb.

Departing Seniors Make Way for the Freshmen

Compiling a one win and two loss season record. Coach "Pop" Hedden's freshmen displayed the kind of football that is needed for success. Even though Washash and St. Joe were able to overcome the Bulldogs, Ball State found our freshmen too tough.

Spending long hours on the practice field, these boys learned the meaning of the phrase, "practice makes perfect." The talent found on this year's team will be seen in the Butler Bowl in years to come. The desire and ability put forth by the team in their first year is only a minute indication of what Butler supporters may expect to see in the future years. Twenty-eight freshmen competed for positions. Among the standouts were: guard, Pete Iraria, halfbacks Ted Barker and Bill Thompson, and quarterback Ed Bopp.

Larry Shade Cops Two Top Honors

At the annual Utes basketball banquet senior Larry Shade was awarded the Hilton U. Brown and Most Valuable Player Awards. The Most Valuable Player Award was selected by the newspaper sportswriters. The Hilton U. Brown Award is chosen by the members of the B-Mens club, and is given to the player who displays the best mental attitude, and scholarship. Humbly accepting the trophies, Larry thanked Mr. Hinkle and the members of the team.

Other senior members, Lon Showley and Jim Petty were also recognized as primary contributors to the year's record.

Larry Shade won two awards at the basketball banquet.

Butler Team Tilts the Talent

Following the football season, our thoughts turn to that sport which places Butler University on the map. Basketball, Butler style, maintains an esteemed position in the minds of many people. The cheering crowds, the music of Butler's fine band, and the thrills that a Butler team provide, all contribute to that sensation known as "Hoosier Hysteria."

The players on this years team added much to the excitement of the game. As Tony Hinkle said, "I'd have to say this was a gummy club. This club played some of the best ball Butler's ever played—and some of the worst. It was as gummy as I ever had, I can't think of a better word to describe it. They'd give you a thrill one way or another."

One of the "gummyest" of the Bulldogs was the captain, 5'10" Larry Shade. The crowd was always thrilled with the performance Larry gave. Hinkle said, "I think Larry belongs in our miracle corner of little guys." Maintaining a starting position for three years, the guard from Seymour, Indiana was the spark plug of the team. Larry was everywhere on the floor, guarding, shooting, and rebounding. He outplayed some of the biggest names in collegiate basketball. In recognition of his talent, Larry was named to the 1965-66 Indiana-Kentucky All Star team. Four of the first seven Bulldogs are juniors who saw plenty of action this year. As a result, the 1966-67 team should continue to find success.

Bulldog Team Breaks School Scoring Mark

The Bulldogs finished third in the Indiana Collegiate Conference with an 8-4 record and finished 16-10 overall. ICC competition again proved tough, with Indiana State and Evansville sharing top honors.

Junior center, Ed Schilling, led Butler scoring this year. Scoring 538 points, Ed broke the existing individual season scoring record by two points. The Bulldogs game total also established a season record. Scoring 2,119 points in 26 games, they broke the 1958-1959 standard of 2,086 for 28 games.

In addition to Schilling and Shade, Ron Salatich, Bill Brown, Gene Milner, Jim Petty, and Lon Showley all helped to raise the team's scoring record.

The strong showing that many of the reserves gave, indicated that the Bulldogs will begin next year right where they left off—winning.

Butler Beats Indiana State—Hinkle's 500th Win

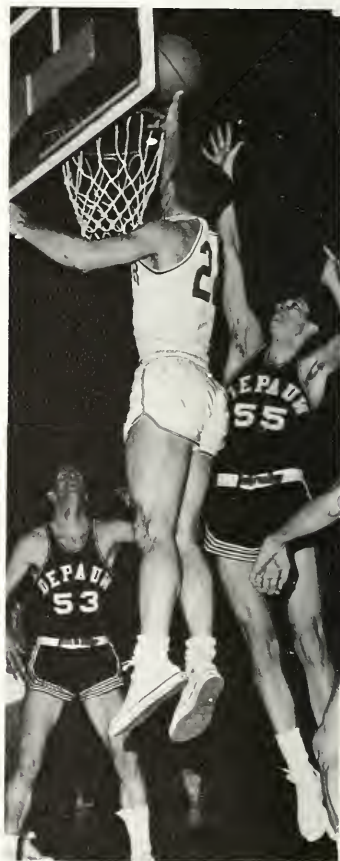

Forward Bill Brown shoots as Schilling and Shade await the rebound.

Despite the efforts of Evansville, Schilling scores.

This was a season that saw Coach Tony Hinkle win his 500th basketball game, an accomplishment that very few coaches have achieved. It was a season that saw Butler's fieldhouse renamed "Hinkle Fieldhouse" in honor of the great coach and athletic director. It was a season in which the Bulldogs were almost unbeatable on the home court. It was a season of surprises.

Coach Hinkle's 500th win came with the defeat of Indiana State. Following this the Bulldogs won five home games in a row, including a very decisive victory over the number two team in the nation, the Wolverines of Michigan. Playing on the road, Butler encountered more difficulty. At the end of the season Butler had won twelve out of fourteen games at home, while winning only four out of twelve games away.

Guard Jim Petty jumps high into the air to score.

Butler Ranks Third in ICC

Butler fared well with non-conference opponents. In a thrilling game with Ohio State, Butler lost by only one point, and then went on to beat Southern California, Michigan, Oklahoma, Toledo, Yale, Notre Dame, and Wabash.

Even though Butler ranked below Indiana State and Evansville in the ICC final standings, the bulldogs did beat Evansville by a score of 110-83 and Indiana State by 76-70. This year the ICC was not dominated by one team and many upsets occurred. Upsets lead to thrilling games.

Butler Frosh Gain Valuable Experience

Gaining valuable experience and learning the fundamentals under the "Hinkle system," this year's freshmen basketball team showed much promise. Paced by top scorers John Nelson and Clarence Harper, the Bullpups displayed spirit and team work. As freshmen they can look forward to next season when they will become a welcome addition to the Bulldog's varsity team.

Coach Hedden can be proud of his team with their record of five wins and three losses.

Before each varsity game the freshman play either opposing teams or the varsity reserves.

Pi Phis, Lambda Chis Win All-Sports Trophies

The women of the Pi Beta Phi sorority and the men of the Lambda Chi Alpha fraternity took top honors in the 1964-1965 intramural contest. In order to win this award Lambda Chi Alpha competed with nine other men's organizations and Pi Beta Phi competed with eight women's groups in ten different sporting events throughout the year.

The Pi Phis received their award at the annual Women's Recreation Association banquet. They were victorious in badminton singles and doubles. Besides these victories, they placed high in several other events.

The Lambda Chis displayed general versatility by winning the track, cross country, volleyball, tennis and badminton awards in the men's division.

Afternoons in the Hinkle fieldhouse produce the time and setting for intramural competition. Throughout the year both men's and women's teams compete in the following events: basketball, softball, volleyball, table tennis, badminton, bowling and swimming.

The Butler University Fieldhouse is the headquarters for one of the most active groups on campus, the Women's Recreation Association. The majority of women students belong to this group and participate in sports throughout the year.

WRA offers a wide variety of sports for all girls. The fall season started with kickball and table tennis. Coeds still were recovering from stiff muscles when volleyball, bowling and basketball came into view. Badminton singles and doubles were soon to follow. The next big team sport in sight was softball, intermingled with the swimming meet, archery, tennis, and track and field.

Nine organizations participate in the program which is held two days a week. Students are responsible for equipment, scoring, and refereeing. Each year the WRA Sports Council reviews the success of the past activities and then determines next year's program. The sports council also decides specific rules and regulations.

Men's Intramurals, sponsored by the men's physical education department, are under the direction of Frank "Pop" Hedden. The major sports are football, basketball, softball, volleyball, and track. The minor sports are table tennis, wrestling, badminton, swimming and bowling. Approximately two hundred men participate in these activities which are held three afternoons a week.

Intramural chairmen for each organization are responsible for securing teams, while qualified students serve as referees.

When each activity is complete, the first place team is determined and a trophy awarded. At the end of the year an over-all winner is selected based on the total number of first places.

Although there is a great deal of rivalry between the participants, and constant dispute with the referees, good sportsmanship generally prevails. This is the aim of the intramural program at Butler.

We proudly present our home: Epsilon Omicron chapter of Kappa Sigma.

Kappa Sigs Pan Out King

Jim Kutschke, president; Gordon Tabor, vice-president and rush chairman; Stan Busby, recording secretary; and Glenn Jacob, treasurer, have been the officers for Kappa Sigma this year. Mom Stillwagon has served as house-mother for one year.

Since 1919 the men of Kappa Sigma have added greatly to the social and academic life of Butler University. Kappa Sigma has several members in Utes, Sphinx, Blue Key, Phi Delta Chi, and Kappa Kappa Psi. They boast of the Senior Class president and the 1965 Pan-Hel King. This past year the Kappa Sigs have also had members in Who's Who and Operation Outstanding.

Their pin, the crescent and the star, carries out their colors of scarlet, white, and emerald green. Speaking of their pin, two of their pin-women were selected as their ideals. Miss Barbara Bruder has reigned as the Sweetheart of Kappa Sigma while Miss JoAnn Elliot has served as Kappa Sigma Dream Girl.

For the third year in a row, the Kappa Sigs placed as finalists in Geneva Stunts. Versatility ranging from scholars to sportsmen combine to form the Epsilon Omicron chapter of the "K Sigs—the regular guys."

Lambda Chis Win at Charades

"Charades" proved to be the winning tune for the Men of Lambda Chi Alpha in Spring Sing this year. And "Out-standing" proved to be the theme of their members in displaying their talents. This year they claim Most Valuable Varsity Football Player, DRIFT Bachelor's Court, as well as Drum Major of the Butler University Marching Bulldogs. Speaking of Bulldogs—the Lambda Chis have their own personal mascot, Sam, who always has a voice (bark?) in their activities. Their housemother, Mom Dorr, is now completing her second year of service at the Lambda Chi house.

Eighty-one men combined their talents, wit, and services to put the men of Lambda Chi Alpha in second place in the men's division of House Decorations this year. Other activities and honors include Phi Eta Sigma vice-president; Utes vice-president; Sophomore Class vice-president; Sphinx treasurer; SAM president; and IFC president.

Their Crescent Girl this year is Pi Phi Dixie Trittschuh. Their officers are Dick Dullaghan, president; Tom Bose, vice-president; Bill Lubawy, secretary; and Bill Lute, rush chairman.

Sigma Nus "Swing" With a Social Orientation

The men of Sigma Nu began the year with their annual Orientation-Week Campus Dance. The selection of Miss Suzanne Terrell, Theta, as "Miss Orientation Week" concluded the beginning of another fine year.

Epsilon Mu Chapter of Sigma Nu was led this year by John Bigelow, commander; Jack Calabrese, lieutenant commander; Gerald Roesener, recording secretary; Chris Iles, corresponding secretary; John King, treasurer; and Art Truman, rush chairman. Their housemother, Mrs. Rose Weintz, has served for one year.

Extra-curricular life for the Sigma Nus is busy and exciting. Representatives in YD, YR, Circle K, B-Men, Kappa Kappa Psi, Sphinx, and Phi Eta Sigma are a few examples of campus-wide participation. Their campus officers include Freshman Class president, YMCA secretary and treasurer, and Sphinx vice-president.

Sigma Chis Cross Off Another Outstanding Year

The men of Sigma Chi filled top positions on campus this year. One of their first honors was the naming of one of their brothers as Outstanding Male Student for 1965. The president of B-Men as well as IFC secretary are two more examples of the Sig's leadership.

Rho chapter has many activities for Butler's students. Derby Day leads to a wild chase for men and derbies. The Sigs also honor the outstanding fraternity and sorority on campus with the presentation of their Scholarship Trophy and Panhellenic Trophic annually.

Dave Sutphin led the house as president with Tom Sayer, vice-president; Larry Fairchild, recording secretary; Darrell Davies, corresponding secretary; Newell Easley, treasurer; and Bob Campbell, rush chairman. Miss Nora Campbell, Theta, reigned as Sweetheart.

Mom Hoffman is completing her 18th year.

TKEs Proud of Bachelorhood

Bachelor Brothers have found among themselves a Most Eligible Bachelor this year. He was chosen at the annual DRIFT Beauty Pageant. However, their success did not end here. This event was only a continuation of the beginning of the year when the TKEs placed third in house decorations.

Leading the house as president this year is Dennis McCreery. His fellow officers include Dick House, vice-president; Steve Keiser, secretary; and Stan May, treasurer and rush chairman.

The men of Tau Kappa Epsilon have shown great leadership abilities this past year. Such campus officers as Student Council vice-president, Freshman Class vice-president, Religious Council president, SAM vice-president, and Young Democrats vice-president are members of Delta Psi Chapter of Tau Kappa Epsilon. The TKEs also support Butler's honoraries including Sigma Delta Chi, Utes, Sphinx, and Blue Key.

Their sweetheart this year is Miss Marcia Finke, Alpha Chi Omega. Their Favorite Girl is Miss Toni Wine, Delta Gamma.

Victory Lane Is Road to Success for Phi Delt

"And in first place in the men's division—the men of Phi Delta Theta" was the announcement that gave the Phi Delt their first place trophy in House Decorations.

House dec honors were not the only recognition these men received that weekend. Teamed with the Alpha Chis, they roared into victory lane in number one place in the annual Pushmobile Race.

The Phi Delt spirit hasn't been confined to just one weekend. Another victory was soon added when 86 Phi Delt won the annual Goodwill Drive.

This year they hold five presidencies on campus. These include YMCA president, Sphinx president, Utes president, Young Democrats president, and Circle K president. Other campus offices are Young Republicans vice-president, Sophomore Class vice-president, IFC vice-president, and Phi Mu Alpha historian. Their officers this year have been Mike Cook, president; Tom Woody, vice-president; Jon King, secretary; and Don Thompson, treasurer.

The men of Phi Delta Theta also have in their numbers the Geneva Stunts chairman and Spring Sing chairman this year. Also, they have members in Who's Who. One Phi Delt was named to the Top Ten Male Students of Butler University.

This year the Phi Delt elected Miss Jeni Fryback of Kappa Alpha Theta as their sweetheart. Their housemother, Mom Kahl, is completing her first year.

Phi Delta Theta Fraternity truly knows the meaning of success and brotherhood which displays itself in their many campus activities.

"Hey Ref, where did you get your license?"

Mom Kahl is the feminine side of Phi Delta Theta.

"Hey, get that twig off my foot!"

"Oh, this hand should have been a foot."

Glowing Phi Kappa Thetas "Light Up" Campus

This year, with their annual Christmas Tree Lighting Ceremony, the Phi Kaps sponsored their first Snow Queen Contest. Dianne Arbeiter, Theta, reigned as the Phi Kaps Queen. Their interest in females is not limited to beauty alone. On the basis of poise, congeniality, ideal qualities, and charm the men of Indiana Alpha Kappa selected Miss Judy McAvoy and Miss Linda Sparks as sweetheart and chapter favorite, respectively. Miss Kay Hanrahan, housemother, has completed her second year of service. Yes, femininity has its place!

Serving the house as president this year was Mike Kern. Assisting him were James Kirsch, vice-president; Don Hanke, treasurer; Vince Martinelli, rush chairman Bill Andersen, pledge trainer; and Tom Staddler, social chairman.

Ross "Hallers" Are Typical Butler Residents

The Ross Residence Hall men, numbering approximately 450, are typical of the college male. Housed here is a combination of undergraduate as well as graduate students. Although the composition is predominantly independent, some Greeks live there also.

Participation in campus and social activities is only one phase of the dorm life. Several of the residents work as "houseboys" at various sorority houses. Some of the men exert their labors and abilities at night jobs in addition to attending day school.

Heading the dorm this year were Larry French, president; Dean Curtis, vice-president; Steve Kaufmann, secretary; Bill Ruppel, assistant secretary; Hap Wheeler, corresponding secretary; Bob Palmer, treasurer; and John Henninger, intramural chairman.

"It Was a 'Darn' Good Year"

The preceding pages have intended to present a living record of the year's events through pictures and words. The editors wish to thank the people involved in the production of the 1966 DRIFT.

The year, as a whole, was characterized by labor, dedication, and the enjoyment that comes when working with others in the pursuit of a common goal. Specifically, the year began with a struggle to remodel the office. We began by sporting a paint brush and six gallons of paint. It was fun. Planning the book was also an interesting chore in that no matter how many pages are available in any particular yearbook, there is always the individual who feels that he is not getting his fair share. This year was no exception, complete with a letter to the president of the university. We made every deadline this year and, in fact, stayed ahead most of the time. This is not to say that everything was rosey. For example, it was quite an experience to work until 5am with two lovely assistant editors to beat that all-important rush. And then, there was the time that our first proofs were returned and we discovered that all of our measurements had been wrong. Having recuperated from this disaster, we held a party. It was amazing to observe the rapidity with which those two kegs of Coke disappeared. In addition, there was the joy encountered when the 1965 DRIFT was named one of the Top Twelve Yearbooks in the United States and Canada.

May I conclude—It was a "darn" good year!

Robert L. Oyler—Editor
